

Fiddler's Green

Takt: 3/4
Tempo: 60

C F C a
As I walked by the dockside one evening so fair

C F C G
to view the salt water and taste the sea air.

F C a
I heard an old fisherman singing this song:

C F C G
"Won't you take me away, boys, my time isn't long!"

C G C F C G
Wrap me up in my oilskin and jumper, no more on the docks I'll be seen,

F C
just tell me old shipmates, I'm taking a trip mates and

G C
I'll see you someday in Fiddler's Green.

Now, Fiddler's Green is a place I heard tell,
where fishermen go if they don't go to hell,
where the skies are all clear and the dolphins do play and the cold coast of greenland is far, far away.

Where the skies are all clear and there's never a gale.
And the fish jump on board with a switch on their tail
Where you lie at your leisure, there's no work to do.
And the skipper's below making tea for the crew.

When you get to the docks and the long trip is through,
there's pubs and there's clubs and there's lassies there, too,
where the girls are all pretty and the beer it is free and there's bottles of rum growing from every tree.

Now I don't want a harp nor a halo, not me,
just give me a breeze and a good rolling sea.
I'll play me old squeeze-box as we sail along with the wind in the rigging to sing me a song.
